Welcome to our new look Family Friendly Holiday Timetable!

During this week we will be offering a selection of fun and exciting new activities for all of the family. So if your pre-school child has a brother or sister who is at primary school they can come along too. We are working with Norden Children's Centre in delivering our programme so there is something for everyone to enjoy every morning and afternoon except on Wednesday. Please ask or call the centre for further details 01706 753240.

Please Note: Regular term time activities will resume on 20 February 2012.
